ABOUT US...

Established in 2016, The Fintech Times is a global multimedia news outlet centred around the world's first leading Fintech newspaper.

We report on the latest and brightest ideas from the Fintech world as an authoritative and trusted voice, focused on high-quality content and distributed to a global network.

We have been building that voice over the years and with the support of our 85,000+ unique visitors online every month and with over 150,000+ copies of the print newspaper circulated around the world every year.

Chronicling the latest developments in cutting-edge financial technologies including PayTech, RegTech, Banking transformation, Open Banking, Blockchain, WealthTech, Insurtech to name a few.

The Fintech Industry is not only about new companies, new technologies for old companies, its about inventors and visionaries, and everyday people creating something new.
